Karen Hewitt reported: (1) Surveyor working for Nassal had inquired about Ridgeline Ordinance We discussed that the tree cutting was restoration of pasture. Some of the timber cutting was not in the ridgeline however the timber cutting within the ridgeline did create an obvious visual modification to the forest overstory as viewed from Pomfret Roads 15.3.5 (2) and is a potential violation, to be determined, of our current ridgeline ordinance. (2) Cast house appeal
